ADVENT begins next Sunday, the First Sunday of Advent. Because of the slightly penitential character of Advent, there is no Gloria (Glory to God) in the Sunday Masses of this season.

CATHOLICS from the PHILIPPINES give great importance to Advent, with a special series of Masses. In Calgary. In Calgary, these Masses are at various churches. The first of these Masses is to be here at St. Elizabeth's next Sunday, the First Sunday of Advent, at 4:00 p.m. Everyone is welcome. The language used for most if not all of the celebration will be Tagalog. (And, yes, a collection is taken which goes to St. Elizabeth's).

FOOD for the HUNGRY
There is a box in the narthex (the church entrance area) ready to receive food items for those in need. (NO clothing). The food must be non-perishable (in cans or boxes), and not past any 'best before date'. The St. Vincent de Paul Society at Sacred Heart Parish has plenty of experience so, from time to time, what is collected here is taken over to Sacred Heart.
Because of legal restriction, home-made items, such as jams and jellies, cannot be accepted.

SUNDAY MISSALS (2026-27)
The English Sunday Missals are here. You can purchase one for $10, They are in the church entrance area. Please put the money in the box.

ST. FRANCIS XAVIER, Thursday, Dec. 3.
He was born in 1506 in Navarre, which was then a separate kingdom, but which became part of Spain. While studying at the University of Paris, he met St. Ignatius of Loyola, founder of the Society of Jesus (the Jesuits), of which he became one of the first seven members. Ordained a priest in 1537, in 1540 he set out for Goa in India, a voyage which took thirteen months. Apostolic zeal led him to parts of India, Sri Lanka (Ceylon), the Malay peninsula, parts of Indonesia, and Japan. He died in 1552 while seeking admittance to China. He is said to have been the greatest Chirstian missionary since St. Paul and is the patron of the Foreign Missions.
