OUR LADY OF THE ROSARY – Wednesday, October 7

This feast was instituted as a special commemoration of the victory by a Catholic fleet under Don Juan of Austria over a Turkish fleet at Lepanto, off the coast of Greece, on October 7, 1571. Pope Pius V had appealed to Catholics to pray the rosary. The Turks, having defeated the Hungarians at Mohács in 1526, had then been threatening Western Europe.

October 18th is World Mission Sunday with the collection for the missions at the request of the Pope. How much can one afford? How about the cost of a cup of coffee each day of October?
